Company Profile

Jiangmen Huoli Gas Appliance Co. Ltd is located in Jiangmen City, close to Hong Kong and Macao. There are more than 300 workers and 20 technicians in the factory which covers an area of over 10,000 square meters.

We have a complete enterprise management system which includes product development, manufacturing, purchasing, quality control and sales. In order to guarantee the quality of every product, the factory is also equipped with the high-tech examination machines.

We registered the trademark "Huoli" in 1989. We have received various kinds of certificates and titles, such as National Highest Standard gas appliance manufacture license, National Compulsory product "3C" certificate, European "CE" certificate. Our gas BBQ and gas appliance won the provincial superior products title and in 1990 won the prize of excellence product in the second international new technology and new product exhibition.

Owing to our excellent development team, advanced equipment, skilled and professional workers, our products have obtained the old and new customers' consistent high praise. They mainly sell to China mainland, Southeast Asia and Europe. The lines include: household gas water heaters, BBQ gas ovens, gas stoves, etc. We have an annual manufacturing capacity of 400,000 gas stoves, 100,000 Gas BBQ, 20,000 gas water heater.

Since China joined the WTO, we have expanded our sales scale in the international market. Our research and design department continually strives to improve our products to meet the different demands of the customers. The recognition and satisfaction is always our pursuing target.

We have established the GB/T19001-1309001 (1994 version) quality control system for the "gas appliance series." We will make greatest effort to supervise the product quality and regularly upgrade technology so as to provide the customers with high quality, competitively products.
